

SUBORDINATING CONJUNCTIONS

A subordinating conjunction connects a dependent clause with an independent clause.

- We can't go to the shopping mall because it's too late.
- Whenever I go to the UK, I meet her.
- Although it was hailing, we went to university.

Grammarly.com

- After
- Although
- As long as
- As much as
- As soon as
- Now that
- Once
- Only
- Only if
- Provided that
- Since
- So
- Supposing
- Than